TREASON AT NICE!

THE NICE SUMMIT, to start on Thursday the 7th, will be a major blow to the future of all free and independent European nations, and a further step along the road to globalisation and world government.

In the biggest handover of power to EU bureaucrats since the Maastricht Treaty of 1991, Tony Blair will sell Britain down the drain in many important areas, and set in motion the start of a European Superstate in which Britain will be a mere province.

Blair looks set to give up Britain's Veto on Transport, leading to road tolls and extra charges for British motorists and a new drink-drive limit as low as one pint, leading to the ruin of thousands of rural pubs, on the appointment of senior European Bureaucrats, leading to the proliferation of loonies like Jacques Delors in high seats of power, giving up of our Veto on industrial policy leading to Brussels ruling our business methods and starting recession.

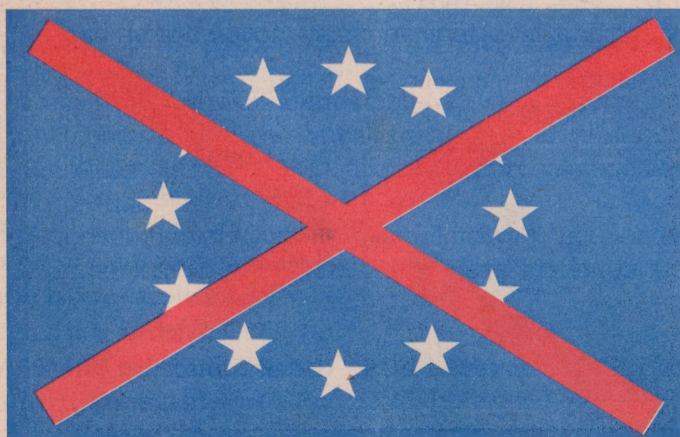

The EU will win powers to levy yet more taxes on motorists and wreck our road haulage industry.

THE NEVER-ENDING TIDE

The snatch squad of immigration officers tracking down illegal immigrants is to be scrapped. Set up only five months ago, the team is to be disbanded in the New Year.

A Home Office official said that the scheme was unlikely to be made operational since it could 'spark disorder on the streets if the squad tries to arrest someone.'

The admission that Britain's immigration laws and their enforcement are inoperable because of the fear of civil disorder from large numbers of immigrants already resident in Britain is further proof that immigration is out of control.

This comes at the same time that Home office officials have admitted that the illegals who have 'vanished' into the black economy number something like a quarter-of-a-million.

Just 7,600 were thrown out of Britain last year. The majority, that is the 94% who are judged to be bogus, simply vanish never to be seen again.

Mr. Boys Smith of the Home Office said that there were no checks on asylum seekers to track their whereabouts and it is known that there is a shortage of detention centres to hold them.

98% of the 1,500 in Oakington detention camp in Cambridgeshire who have been refused leave to stay have launched appeals.

While Labour can, apparently do nothing and the Tories offer empty rhetoric since the mess started with them, the only obvious solution to the problem of 'asylum-seekers' - bearing in mind that in Calais they fought the police to be able to register in Britain, not in France is to declare a complete halt to what is a complete farce.

TREASON AT NICE!

More poor third-world countries such as Turkey will be admitted as members leaving us to pay to bring them up to our standards.

Brussels will win the power to decide the size and cost of our 'contribution' to the new European army. UK taxpayers, already reeling from the stealth taxes of Gordon Brown, will fork out more money to pay for propaganda to brainwash our people into accepting the ailing and failing EURO.

Worst of all, the European parliament will gain control of the funding of European political parties - making it harder for any anti-superstate and pro-freedom parties to oppose the growing tyranny of the EU bureaucrats.

All borders in all European countries will be dismantled completely, leading to millions and millions and millions of poor third-world immigrants flooding Europe in search of better conditions.

We will even lose the right to planning permission in our cities which will be decided by the EU.

Our North Sea fish stocks are near collapse, thanks to the EU allowing European fleets to hoover up our fish stocks.

British servicemen who will serve in the new 'Euro Army' will be forced to wear arm badges displaying the yellow stars of the European Union flag. Britain is to give up 24,000 troops, 72 combat aircraft and 18 warships to the new European army which is to be the military basis of a European superstate.

Britain we must vote NO! Our ancestors who fought and died in their millions so that the British people could be free must not meant to be, a stepping stone on the way to a united Europe". Wim Duisenburg, President of the European Central Bank "The top priority (is) to turn the

LABOUR LEGALISES BUGGERY FOR 16 YEAR OLDS!

FACT1: In Britain, the most likely way to catch AIDS is through anal sex. FACT2: Tony Blair has made it legal for boys and girls aged 16 to have anal sex! Now that the government has lowered the homosexual age of consent to 16 using the Parliament Act of 1911, even though the bill has been defeated three times in the House of Lords (now a New Labour quango given a media makeover and filled with yes-men), the government is to allow the 150,000 convicted paedophiles in this country legal access to young boys.

The way the liberal elite and the media establishment fawn over the every whim of the Homosexual Lobby is as sickening as it is dangerous. Considering the amount of homosexuals in the Labour party, senior as well as rank-and-file can one really be surprised at their wish to bring the law down to a more 'desirable' age limit. Even after this sickening and decadent move, extremist homosexual activists have called the homosexual age of consent to be lowered to FOURTEEN!

When will it stop? Only when the British people wake up and elect a British National party government!

Gay extremists are now demanding that the age of homosexual consent be lowered to 14!

BLAIR: capitulated to the 'gay' lobby, doesn't listen to the people's views

EURO BLASPHEMY LAWS!

Judge Ruiz-Jarabo Colomer, of the European Court of Justice ruled last week in a 'free speech' case before the court that any political criticism of the European Union is illegal!

The result of the case in effect places any political criticism of the institutions of the European Union and any of its leading figures as equivalent to the crime of Blasphemy - and allows the judges to deny individuals the right to free speech. This ruling allows the European Court to silence anyone who dares to criticize the European Union, a European Union described by The Mirror newspaper as the largest democracy ever constructed!

By twisting the case law of a British Blasphemy case Wingrove v United Kingdom, the European Court has overruled British case law in the 1993 case of Derbyshire v The Times, which stated in its judgment that "It is of the highest public importance that any democratically elected governmental body, or indeed any governmental body, should be open to criticism".

Last month the European Court put forward proposals for an independent prosecution role. This case represents the start of the repressive role of the European Court in the future. As the public wake up to what is happening to them then they will flock to parties that offer a nationalist solution to the problems of internationalism and its creation, the European Union. Anyone who dares criticize the actions of the leading Consuls of the European Union Empire in future will find themselves in the Peoples Court - silenced and isolated. Unless we stop it happening now!

ISLAMIC EXTREMISM!

The children's cartoon duo Winnie the Pooh and Piglet may have to spend this Christmas apart in a number of children's stores to 'respect' the sensitivities of Muslim parents!

Winnie the Pooh, Piglet, and Tigger the Tiger, muslims extremists want Piglet removed!

Yorkshire have reported a number of requests for Pooh products - which range from games to bathmats - to be sold without the bear's small friend to avoid problems over pigs' unclean status in Islam!

Muslim fundamentalists have also taken to defacing advertisement

faced in Small Heath in Birmingham. Questioned about this vandalism, a spokesman for the Muslim Jamaat of Birmingham said: "I cannot comment on this advert until I've seen it but, if there is something obscene and another Muslim group finds it offensive then I would support them." This may not seem a big thing, but English girls in northern cities such as Bradford have already found out that, once they have got away with defacing harmless posters, Islamic extremists get bolder, and start stopping women in the street and

A defaced Wonderbra advert in Birmingham

WORLD POPULATION EXPLOSION!

The world's population passed 6 billion in the last few months (almost ignored by the media) - effectively doubling in about a generation - however, all the growth is in non-white and third-world nations, white populations are barely replacing themselves, most even declining! In 5 million acres of south east England, population density approaches 2000 heads per square mile, if we take the M25 circle, this nearly trebles!

Compare that to India, population 1 billion, and a density of 500 heads per square mile!

With lax, ineffective immigration controls and a New Labour government with a death-wish, the population explosion will have dire consequences for any developed country with an open door immigration policy, Britain included!

The third-world contains a endless supply of immigrants!

BLACK AND ASIAN NURSES WILL GET PRIORITY IN NURSE RECRUITMENT!

Black and Asian nurses are to be given fast-track promotion over whites into management jobs because of the colour of their skin under a new Labour government policy!

New Government targets, stating that they want to see 7 per cent of executive nurse directors to come from an Asian, Black or other ethnic background by 2004.

Even a Sri-Lankan born former executive nurse of an NHS Trust in Kent, Ami David, said it was 'tokenistic'.

What we are seeing is a government constantly banging on about equality, then giving preference in jobs to people on ac-

BY-ELECTION RESULTS

The two by-elections contested by the party last month provided further confirmation that the party will not get large votes in Parliamentary contests until such time as we start winning council elections and thereby surmount the wasted vote barrier.

The two contests - in Preston and in West Bromwich West - had the BNP's Chris Jackson and Nick Griffin as the party's two candidates respectively. The votes, of 229 in Preston and 794 in West Bromwich West (WBW) were less than had been hoped for.

In last year's European elections, it was noticed in the constituency breakdown that the party scored more than 2% in Preston and around 4% in West Brom. As it was felt that the party's vote in those elections was unduly depressed by the type of election, it was felt that the party would do better this time around.

In the event, the party's percentage in Preston halved which must be said to have been both a surprise and a disappointment. Conversely, our vote in West Bromwich West held up.

This was almost certainly due to trying an innovative approach in WBW with regard to postal delivery of leaflets. The leaflets were addressed and there was one for the ladies, one for the men, nearly 700 for teenagers voting for the first time and even one (some 1,600) for Sikhs! Not that we were courting the vote of the latter, but it did give the party a chance to experiment with putting out a message to non-whites.

Nevertheless, one of the factors that depressed the party's vote was the weather. It is a fallacy that low turn-outs are always advantageous to the BNP. Where the party isn't able to undertake a detailed campaign - as in a Parliamentary campaign, then a higher turnout is beneficial because the party is known not to have a chance of winning such a contest and so we are more likely to benefit from the protest vote. Torrential rain over the whole of the north and Midlands on the day depressed the turnout and, along with it, the protest vote not just in WBW, but in Preston too. Put bluntly, a small protest isn't worth getting a soaking for!

It is for this reason that the party is putting more effort into council elections and less effort than in the past into parliamentary elections. So while one commentator has opined that a kerfuffle over candidates in WBW may have depressed that particular vote, a neglect of something basic like the weather affecting turnout - 29.39% in Preston and 27.6% in WBW - along with a complete failure to include one of the candidates in the results means that the only reliable analysis of these elections is to be found in your favourite newspaper, The Voice of Freedom!

HOMELESSNESS — AN ISSUE

With thousands of asylum-seekers arriving in Britain every month, people might be forgiven for thinking that this land of milk and honey had already provided our own people with everything that one might desire - which is why we seem able to offer the same to everyone from around the world. The reality is very different. Homelessness has not been defeated, nor has unemployment or poverty. Thousands are homeless and sleeping rough on the streets is the fast track to ill-health and an early death.

In Bolton, the Cameron family, William and Kathleen, 56 and 50 and their 28-year-old nephew squashed for one night into a one-man tent to spend the night in the grounds of Bolton parish Church.

Mr. Cameron said: "We have tried everything in the book but the Salvation Army didn't have any room and we couldn't afford a b&b.

We are getting no help at all. It seems that people can come from other countries and be given all sorts of things but we're from this country and we are having to live like this."

Heartless vicar, Rev Williams, a multi-racist, said they should go away and "see if there's any accommodation."

HEALTH SERVICE DOWN THE DRAIN!

Whilst Clare Short and her Liberal allies in the British Foreign Aid division of the New World Order continue to spend millions upon millions of pounds of taxpayers' money on foreign aid and state-of-the-art medical equipment, that is then sent to the Third World — hundreds of patients in this country have been unable to have the operations they need as doctors are refusing to use dirty surgical equipment that is putting patients' lives at risk.

Many hospitals are now so under funded that the bare minimum of clinical cleanliness cannot be maintained. Surgeons in some parts of the country are reporting that the problem is so bad that patients are dying from outbreaks of drug resistant bacteria — whilst others are dying from late treatment.

Whilst the government wastes taxpayers' billions on the 'Third-World', asylum seekers, and EU 'contributions', our Health Service is being run down and destroyed. This deliberate under-funding of the Health Service is due to two factors, the first is in response to a future treaty that Britain will be signing as ordered by the World Trade Organization.

The General Agreement on Trade and Services Treaty, states that public health services will become illegal, and that private companies will have the right to buy up our entire Welfare System if they want it and that "the public interest" is not a good enough reason to refuse private corporations access to welfare markets.

Those countries that refuse to allow their national welfare to be taken over will have sanctions imposed upon them unless they obey. As the Washington Centre for Strategic and International Research states in their documents: "In the final analysis what really matters is how effectively the surrender of governments to the Global Market is carried out".

So what the New Labour government are about to do is smash the entire welfare state and replace it with a corporate system owned by foreign companies based on the rules of neo-liberalism and beyond the democratic control of any emasculated government! Pensions, unemployment benefits and essential services will be run by American corporations whilst the role of Government will be to enforce ever more draconian laws to stifle debate and dissent as Great Britain and her people are sold out.

The second reason why our Welfare

Services are being deliberately run down is due to New Labour's enthusiasm to join the EURO. We have to cut our Social Security budget down so as to allow us to achieve the convergence criteria of the European Monetary Union - and in the process force millions more of our people into poverty. Trapped between a rock and a hard place the British people are faced with a betrayal of all they worked hard to build and take pride in.

Whilst Tony Blair and his champagne socialist chums make millions out of book deals and other sordid little liaisons with the New Labour Elites - the majority of the British people can only watch as their country goes down the drain.

COUNCIL TAXES TO RISE!

Council taxes are expected to rise by up to 10% in April.

With average council tax bills at £690 per year many house owners face a rise of hundreds of thousands of asylum seekers, the average British family continues to pay out.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS SELL OUT BRITISH PUPILS

INDEPENDENT British schools are about to accept thousands of American students and are advertising school places in the USA - whilst British children are unable to afford access. The number of pupils from overseas rose by 10 percent last year - whilst British children are left to rot in substandard schools suffering from decades of under investment and strangulation by Politically Correct liberals. We say that British schools should take British children first - and that no foreign children should be accepted until every British child has the opportunity to excel in a good school.

Towards the end of my life I am beginning to see that evil is endorsed by the very people who ought to be fighting it.

The law is on the side of the criminal. Irish killers released from the Maze were given £3,900 settling-in allowances by Mo Mowlam. Some were double and triple killers.

A man in England defending his property against burglars gets

When the Bloody Sunday trial starts, British soldiers will be charged with murder for obeying orders. Not the IRA. They will be spending Mo Mowlam's bounty.

Not so long ago, Tony Blair and the loveable Mo Mowlam would have been in the Tower of London on a charge of High Treason.

Is this why, when BNP campaigners were taking a break in West Bromwich West in the recent by-election, were confronted with a Labour party

An "Operation White Vote" would probably be prosecuted for 'racism'

THE BNP AND RACE

The BNP is best known for its policy on race and immigration. The BNP opposes immigration into the UK from whatever its source. For forty years this immigration has primarily been coloured. But it is not an issue of colour since the party is equally opposed to immigration from Albania and Eastern Europe.

The BNP is not a 'race supremacist' party. The BNP does not claim that any one race is superior to any other, simply that they are different. The party merely wishes to preserve those differences which make up the rich tapestry of human kind.

Neither has the BNP any connection with 'race hate'. Indeed it is the multi-racists who are the haters since it is they who are determined to destroy all cultures and all races to achieve a multi-racial mish-mash.

To protect and preserve the racial and cultural integrity of the British people — and of others too, the party believes in separation.

Only in a Black society will Black kids find true Black role models. Only in a Muslim society will Muslims find their religion free from Western influence. All peoples need a homeland. The British too need a homeland.

Nor are the BNP 'racist'. Indeed, the BNP are resisting the racist colonisation of Britain in which the native people of Britain are having their culture suppressed, their land colonised and are being discriminated against on racial grounds.

To sum up, the BNP is fighting for the very right to exist of not just the British, but of all peoples.

FORMER IRA MAN TURNED HUMAN RIGHTS CAMPAIGNER CONVICTED OF SEXUALLY ABUSING DAUGHTER!

A former IRA member has been convicted of sexually abusing his own daughter!

Vincent McKenna, 37, of Belfast, was convicted on 31 counts ter was between 4 and 11 years old! As we in the BNP all know, the IRA and Sinn Féin is not an Irish nationalist organisation, it is a left-wing anti-white terror machine, which is Marxist in inspiration.

Just take a look at their Local Elections Manifesto, and it's chapter on "Minorities and Racism":

"Sinn Féin recognises that we live in a multi-cultural Ireland, which enriches all of us. We are opposed to racism, discrimination, heritages are positive and enhance us all." Sinn Féin is calling for:

1) An open-door policy for immigrants and asylum-seekers, particularly political refugees.

2) The right for asylum-seekers to work and participate fully in Irish society.

3) An end to racially-motivated harassment and attacks.

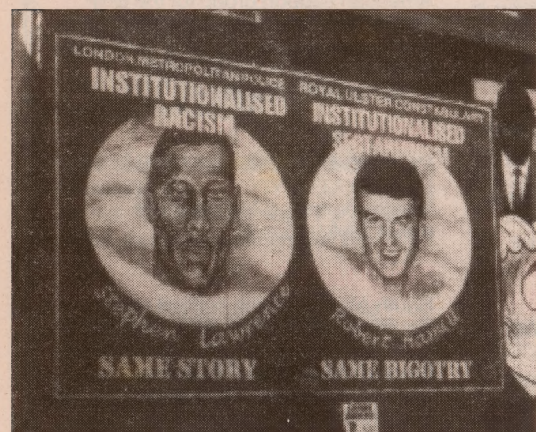

4) The development of multi-cultural community-based education programmes to combat prejudice and promote tolerance and inclusion.

5) An end to discrimination against members of our Travelling Community.

6) Local authorities to deliver on their commitments in the provision of fully-serviced halting sites.

7) Government-led initiatives to combat anti-gay and lesbian discrimination.

8) School-based programmes aimed at combating bigotry and intolerance of all kinds.

BBC MANAGERS GET BONUS FOR RECRUITING BLACK STAFF

The BBC's senior staff will have next year's annual bonuses linked to the number of black and ethnic minority people they have recruited into their own ranks!

Director General Greg Dyke has told them that increasing the number of managers from ethnic minorities is a central business objective and is the key criterion for measuring their performances. He has set a target of doubling the numbers of ethnic people in management from what he called a "pathetic" 2 per cent to 4.

Sandra Horne, deputy director of HR at the BBC, said, "This will be a key element of the performance pay system for all managers. It is not just the target of our head of diversity, Linda Mitchell."

There we have it, reverse racism! All pay increases linked to how enthusiastically they toe a politically correct recruitment line.

Of course, this means that possibly only black and Asian job bidders will get jobs at managerial level at the BBC, who would you choose when considering your own income!

MUSLIMS-ONLY SCHOOLS!

Bradford is set to get a new £5 million state-of-the-art taxpayer-funded Muslim secondary school, the first in the country.

Feversham College is poised to make history when it becomes Britain's first ever Muslim state secondary school.

Nawaz Khan, foundation governor and secretary of the Muslim Association, added: "It is the first Muslim secondary state school and that is great news for the people of Bradford."

"We can now look forward to the next stage which is to buy the land and build the new school." Bradford North MP

Terry Rooney said: "It has taken a long time and I hope it gets running as soon as possible."

"It is good news for Bradford and should be a valuable addition to the education provision."

What Freedom finds perplexing, is that the PC politicians are always on about different cultures living together in harmony. So why is it necessary to set up separate schools for Muslims?

RACIST GANG BREAKS WOMAN'S ARM!

A white woman was punched, kicked and called a 'white bitch' by eight black schoolgirls in an horrific racist attack on a bus in South East London. Eva Harold, 54, of Wandsworth, was attacked after she tried to take a seat on the 319 bus after boarding at Clapham Junction.

The mother-of-one said: "I went to go to the back seat of the bus to sit down and I said 'excuse me' to the girls."

"One of the girls looked up at me with hate in her eyes and then one of them said 'who do you think you are you white bitch?'"

The group then surrounded her and started a vicious attack which left her with a broken arm.

"I said that if I was a black woman she would not dare to talk to me like this. It was because I was white. It was totally obvious. One hit me with her fist on my head twice. I fell backwards and I hit my head on a rail."

Miss Harold does not believe she inflamed the situation. She said: "The girls are going to say I was calling them black this and black that, because that's what they always do, but I didn't do that and, anyway, that is not a reason to do this. I am not a racist." Isn't it amazing that she feels she has to 'prove' she isn't a racist over this incident?

RECOVERING: Eva Harold

■ Meanwhile in New Kent Road, South London, a young woman was gang-raped by four black hoodlums after being dragged by her hair across a main road. They grabbed her hair and arm and forced her into a nearby block of flats, where she was repeatedly raped by them.

IMMIGRATION THE TRUTH AT LAST!

"Whites will be an ethnic minority in Britain by the end of the century"

The Observer 3/9/00

"On current projections, the changeover [from a white to a non-white majority] could happen as soon as 2060"

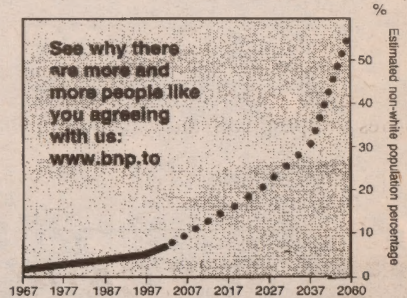

The Times 4/9/00

"One day, Britain will have a black Prime Minister"

Tony Blair 06/07/00

"I look forward to the day when Britain has a black Prime Minister"

William Hague 07/07/00

Above: On the 4/9/00, The Times published this graph showing the speed with which we're losing our country

Right: Whatop New Labour black activists said in The Observer 3/9/00

In Britain, that is almost certain to happen in London, and in the relatively near future. 'At the moment ethnic minorities are about 40% in London. The demographics show that white people in London will become a minority by 2010,' said Jasper. 'We could have a majority black Britain by the turn of the century.'

British National Party Chairman Nick Griffin said: 'I don't think there's any doubt that within this century, white people will become a minority in every country in the world.' For Griffin, however, it is a major cause for alarm: 'Every people under the sun have a right to their place under the sun, and the right to survive. If people predicted that Indians would be a minority in India in 2100, everyone would be calling it genocide.'

THE WONDERS OF LIVING IN A HOTCH-POTCH MULTI-CULTURAL SOCIETY

The nation was treated to a rare spectacle last month when a series of drug-related shootings couldn't be ignored and was splashed in the nation's dailies as well as on prime-time TV.

In three separate incidents over 24 hours four men were left seriously wounded in gunfire amid scores of by-standers.

The most spectacular shooting, along with its consequences occurred in Kensal Rise, N.W. London when four men raced up the wrong side of the road to draw level with a car waiting at traffic lights. One of the men poked a sub-machine gun out of the window and sprayed the other car with bullets.

One 27-year-old victim fled the car and staggered into a shop suffering multiple gunshot wounds while the driver, himself badly wounded, reversed back up the road smashing in to two cars along the way before spinning the car round and making his escape. He didn't stop until he crashed through the barrier at the local police station.

Later, another man was shot sitting in his car, his female passenger was unhurt and the next day two men were shot and wounded on a Tulse Hill, S. London housing estate.

The shootings are understood to be part of a battle for the capital's lucrative drugs racket. But while the media have constantly used the term 'Yardie' as having taken over this trade, being the first to open 'the war', Freedom is given to understand that young British-born blacks, resentful of the "outsiders with a on-black shootings were called upon to back up armed officers from Southwark's own division.

Armed officers stood outside the club and announced that they would be making a search. This news was greeted by gun-toting criminals as a chance to dump their incriminating arms. As the club-goers left, they were frisked by police and a number were found to be wearing bullet-proof vests — not itself evidence of any wrong doing, but worrying nonetheless!

After the operation, senior detectives praised the club-goers with the way they had 'cooperated' in handing over the weapons!

•While the bullets are flying and the cash is being banked, police are making an effort to put the guilty behind bars.

A spectacular raid on a Forest Gate, E. London drug den by more than 30 officers resulted in the closure of a notorious drug den frequented by child cannabis users.

Officers used a ram to smash through the front door and a pickaxe to smash through an upstairs window. Police made three arrests.

The police haul included drugs

Damaged cars in N.W. London where a shot driver crashed into a police station and weapons.

The three arrested men were taken to Forest Gate police station, quizzed, then bailed.

Freedom asks the question: Will these evil men get their just reward, or will they — like crack dealer Ollrick Francis — get a measly nine months which means getting back on the street again after just 4½ months?

Francis was prosecuted after the successful drug-busting operation Skyline.

Superintendent Charles Griggs of Peckham police said that success turned sour after Francis, an illegal immigrant, got 9 months when he might have been expected to get 4 years.

•A party to celebrate Diwali — the Hindu festival of lights — was marred in Hounslow last month as rival Asian groups fought each other with swords, knives and a gun. Two Sri Lankans were stabbed in the chest, one was slashed across the face severing his nose and a fourth was shot in the head. Another four were also treated in hospital.

•Proving that white people can also share multi-racialism's diverse violence, two gangs — one white and one Asian battled it out along Wembley High Road early last month on a Saturday afternoon. Youths with baseball bats, bottles and axes ran amok as pedestrians dived for cover which left three men in their 30's hospitalised with cuts.

silly accent" are defending themselves against their 'bredren'. The new generation of teenagers brought up on a culture of drugs, violence and gangsta rap are proving able hit-men!

•Elsewhere in London, police investigations continue after seven guns were found in a raid on 'Essentials' night club in Camberwell.

Police received a call from Kings College hospital's Accident and Emergency department after a man with a gun shot wound to the head crawled into the waiting room.

Sir — At the turn of the last century Aleister Crowley was an infamous figure in Britain. Not only was he a master of the works of the occult and a pornographer, he was a bisexual and a junkie who it was alleged "took daily enough heroin to kill a room full of people."

His perverted views on life have survived in his writings, now more popular than ever, most notably his 'law of Thelema' which preaches 'Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law'. This is the epitome of modern liberal society. A selfish society where people are encouraged to do whatever they want and where nothing is wrong. No thought is given to the consequences of actions.

Yet when Crowley was alive, this lifestyle earned him condemnation and the press dubbed him the 'wickedest man in the world'. Compare this with the treatment the media reserve for people who indulge in bisexuality and drug taking. No longer are these people frowned on. Now, they are held up as idols, pop stars, TV personalities and even members of Parliament. They are icons of the new liberal 'Cool Britannia'.

How pleased Crowley would be if he were alive today. No doubt, he'd be one of the 'stars'.

Mark Stanley, Basildon.

Sir — How much longer are we the indigenous population of this country going to tolerate the constant attacks on the police from immigrants?

Our police are the bastions of civilisation here and until recently were a respected part of an orderly life-style and the community. Numerous immigrants are accusing our police of 'racism'. What an extortion racket the 'racism' industry is.

What I find especially sickening is that if you look at the home countries of the complainers you will see corruption, lawlessness and violence with little consideration for the rights of the individual. Far from getting a fair hearing of complaints in their own countries, they are more likely to be beaten or thrust into squalid and stinking jails.

Yet here they are bad-mouthing our police and destroying the status and respect for law that we and our police deserve. I for one prefer the peace and safety that was guaranteed by an excellent police force until the advent of permissiveness and immigration.

Many immigrants have dual nationality. If they find Britain so 'racist' they should consider leaving for their own countries.

Mrs. V. Parker, Downham Market.

Sir — the recent saga of the Siamese twins, Jodi and Mary are a perfect example of what is wrong with our National Health Service.

Their parents came from the island of Gozo, one of the three islands that comprise Malta.

On Sep 21 1964, Malta severed its ties with Britain and became the independent state of Malta.

How can the NHS ever have enough money when it seems to offer treatment to everyone on earth? Surgery waiting lists are growing longer, yet foreigners come here and receive immediate and expensive treatment at our expense.

Saying this does not make me heartless. At the same time as this highly publicised case was going on, hundreds of babies were being murdered under the euphemism of abortion and mostly because the parents couldn't be bothered to exercise enough care to avoid pregnancy in the first place.

I strongly believe that government should make treatment under the NHS available to Britons only. Doing so would ensure that there were beds immediately available to those that needed them.

ALBANIAN EXTREMISTS ATTACK SERBIA FOREIGN NEWS

Hundreds of armed Albanian terrorists have attacked Serbian police units in Serbia - killing at least half a dozen people.

Even though UN and NATO forces should have disarmed these Islamic extremists groups that are dedicated to bringing a Holy War in the Balkans - they have allowed them to re-equip and re-group and launch probing attacks into Serbian territory.

Bernard Kouchner, the United Nations chief administrator in Kosovo stated: "The Albanian extremists are now ready to step up their targeting of the Serb Community." Four policemen have been killed in the border village of Konculji, in the Presevo valley and a bomb has exploded in Pristina.

Zoran Djindjic, the New World Order appointed leader of Serbia - through the usual manipulation of the media and democracy - has stated much to his paymasters dismay "This could lead to a large scale war ... We are warning the international community that if it tolerates this, there could be another flashpoint in the Balkans".

When will the masters of the New World Order realise that they cannot impose multiculturalism upon a people by force or stealth.

The Roman Empire tried to do it, the Communists tried to do it and the Liberals are trying to do it globally. Each was, and is, doomed to fail.

People will not surrender their identities for the yoke of wage slavery - they want freedom not the poverty of political correctness!

NATIONALIST SUCCESS IN ROMANIA!

The nationalist Greater Romania Party have scored a spectacular victory as they take 28.8% in the Presidential race, with their candidate and party leader Corneliu Vadim Tudor going into a run-off with the former ex-Communist president Ion Iliescu, and taking 20% in the parliamentary election. Amazingly, in the 1996 election, the Greater Romania party won 4.5% of the vote!

As with the Vlaams Blok and its opponents in Belgium, the opposition Party of Social Democracy which took 37% of the vote vowed never to form a coalition with the Greater Romania Party. Tudor, leader of the Greater Romania party, has been likened to Jean Marie Le Pen of France and Jorg Haider of Austria.

RIOTS IN CALAIS!

Over 100 refugees living in a Red Cross warehouse in Calais in France rioted on the 21st November 2000 in protest at the French police's refusal to let them have free access into Britain in order to claim asylum.

They blocked the entrance to the Port of Calais and undertook a public pseudo-struggle gle with the police for the benefit of the press cameras.

Earlier in the week ethnic warfare broke out between the Kurds and the Afghans at the Reception centre resulting in a dangerous tension according to those that run the shelter.

Some of these illegals having been living in France for months and are refusing to claim asylum in France in case it affects their claim for asylum in Great Britain.

As the benefits and social provisions for refugees are so much better in Britain than France this provides the motivation for them to squat for months in France before being smuggled into Britain.

The UN states that refugees must seek refuge in the first peaceful country they come to.

The sheer fact that 'refugees' travel hundreds of miles through perhaps dozen of peaceful countries is proof enough that they are in reality looking for a free-lunch!

Those watching this news item on the Six 'O' Clock news on Meridian TV that evening, but unreported nationally in the papers, would have been shocked - but also amused at the pantomime like way the French police dealt with these professional victims.

The word, 'debacle' comes to mind!

RENAMING OUR COUNTRY!

Politically Correct Labour Councillors in Birmingham have voted to change the name of a part of the city known as Balsall Heath to 'Apna Town', meaning 'Our Town' in Punjabi!

ASYLUM BIDS UP 55%

The number of people seeking asylum in Britain rose by 55% last year. More than 80% of these were from E. Europe.

Home Office figures show that there were 71,000 applications which represent some 213,000 people.

ASYLUM SEEKERS IN WALES

A new organisation to help asylum seekers arriving in Wales will be launched in Cardiff with the help of £241,000 from the Diana Princess of Wales Memorial Fund. Around 5,000 asylum seekers are expected to start arriving in Wales early next year from the Sudan, Kosovo, Iraq, Afghanistan, Somalia and Sri-Lanka.

A report for education watchdog Ofsted revealed that black pupils end up bottom of the class after starting out ahead of white children.

Black pupils aged five and rated 20% above their white class-mates end up being 21% below by the age of 16. The failure is blamed on 'bad teaching and poor facilities'. It is not explained how white children overcame the same handicaps.

HOLLYWOOD'S NEW MULTIRACIAL PROPAGANDA!

Hollywood can always be trusted to spew out the most degenerate anti-white films, but this one tops the bill! A film specifically about multiracial sex, Black and White is a dangerous propaganda film. According to the writer-director "The way interracial sex is presented in this picture, is so casual, so extreme and so severe it will bring closet-bigots to the surface. It's going to shock people." With well known blonde German supermodel, Claudia Schiffer, and with crude and well-designed political lines such as "Everybody's got to keep f**ing everybody else until there's only one colour," this is a dangerous piece of Hollywood propaganda that all sensible white people should do their best to keep away from our young people.

And we say this because it isn't out of the blue, the director, James Toback, has stated that this film serves a political purpose: "I hope this film will force people to face up to inter-racial thoughts in a way they haven't done before." This film is out across the nation as we write this in cinemas all around the country.

BNP MAKES THE HEADLINES IN REDBRIDGE

Just seven hundred leaflets were enough to make the headlines in one week's edition of the Wanstead & Woodford Guardian last month.

A bid to build a mosque in the area in the face of planning refusal has alarmed residents who fear their neighbourhood turning into part of the inner city.

At a council area meeting to discuss the issues, several hundred Muslims bused in from outside the area packed out the meeting and up to 100 racist Asian thugs racially abused local folk and fought with police. No wonder with this as a taster that local people are less than keen concerning the wonders of multi-racialism coming to their area.

The party was also in the paper the following week as a spokesman condemned some juvenile graffiti that had appeared in the area and denied the hysterical claim from a 'resident' that the party's local leaflet was 'hate mail'. All was revealed as the 'resident' was photographed in the paper as one of four posing in front of a far left banner. The group — the so-called and self-styled 'Anti-Nazi League' — are a front for the Socialist Workers Party which backed the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan and support communist murder during the last century.

● The party also received a big centre-spread splash in Newcastle and Sunderland's Evening Chronicle following heavy BNP leafleting of Newcastle's West End. The BNP leaflet drew attention to plans to move 16,000 refugees from London to the North East. The best party opponents could do apparently, was allege that not all of them would end up in the district of Denton which fact the party's leaflet had taken in error from a Brent council statement.

Denton ward's councillor Mary Carr held a special meeting in a West Denton Church hall to which more than 100 residents turned up to tell her in no uncertain terms that the refugees were not wanted. And who can blame them?

BNP muscles in over Muslim centre

by Sue Archer

Council to take legal action over building work in progress without planning permission

THE UNAUTHORISED development of a Muslim religious centre has sparked a hate mail campaign by far right extremists.

Redbridge's branch of the British National Party (BNP) has posted leaflets to South Woodford residents condemning the owner of the Mulberry Way centre for building without planning permission.

Graffiti saying "Kill" and "BNP" has been scrawled on the centre's walls.

And now Redbridge Council plans to take legal action against the Qur'ani Murkuz Trust, after officers visited the centre last week and saw builders at work on the premises.

The BNP questionnaires, which have sparked outrage from householders, ask residents whether they agree with the development of the centre into a mosque and whether it threatens the "British way of life".

It asks: "Do you think that Redbridge Council should look after the interests of local people first rather than those who are bused in from Newham and who are subsequently involved in a riot outside an area council meeting because they don't agree with the outcome?"

"It's not just about the Mulberry Way mosque, it's about our entire way of life — our culture, our heritage, our traditions, our history."

One South Woodford resident, who received the leaflet on Monday, said: "I'm shocked and disgusted that people can distribute such literature."

Builders at work on the Muslim religious centre

"I didn't expect this sort of thing in South Woodford."

"The people who published this are mindless idiots, hell bent on spreading xenophobia."

Last month, the Qur'ani Murkuz Trust condemned the violence which erupted outside a tense council meeting after planning permission was refused for further development of the centre.

One policeman had his nose broken and another received cuts to his head when glass bottles were thrown by protesters.

The premises in Mulberry Way have been dogged by controversy for many months with the owners fighting the council for permission to expand the building by a third of its present size.

The trust has twice failed in bids to use the building as a mosque and its plans were set back even further in March when the building was gutted in an arson attack.

One angry Woodford Green resident said: "Why doesn't the council stop the building works until planning permission is given?"

A Redbridge Council spokeswoman said: "The council last visited the site last week and building work was being carried out by the owner-occupier. A decision has now been taken to pursue legal action."

"As with any case where work is carried out without planning permission, it may result in the council taking action either to remove or alter unacceptable parts of the building."

Members of the Qur'ani Murkuz Trust were unavailable for comment.

A1 IN YORKSHIRE

Leeds branch BNP kicked off a tour of the county for Tony Lecomber, head of Group Development & Regulation, with a meeting in East Leeds.

Speaking on the betrayal of our land by establishment politicians, Tony spoke of the three betrayals: on sovereignty, on the economy and on immigration. He said: "You'd think they [the politicians] would get it right at least half of the time. You could do that by flipping a coin. So when nearly everything they do is a disaster, you have to ask yourself: Are they doing it deliberately, or are they just completely imbecilic?"

Leeds Organiser, Tony McDonnell concluded his speech by saying that Yorkshire BNP was entering the New Year in the best shape that it has been for years.

The next day Mr. Lecomber was in Dewsbury speaking to the party's new Organiser there before going to Bradford and then on to Doncaster the following day where the party has now established a new group.

Doncaster BNP is an important group for the party as it expands into S. Yorks. Members and supporters were also invited to a meeting in Sheffield, the intention being to relaunch the party in the Sheffield/Rotherham/Barnsley area. Watch this space!

With a relaunch of the party in Halifax imminent and the possibility of a new group in Keighley, the party in Yorkshire is, as Tony McDonnell said: "In the best shape it's been for years."

AND CENTRE-SPREAD IN TYNESIDE...

An Chronicle
Special Investigation
By Andrew McKegney

ITS aim is simple: to banish non-British men, women and children from this country. The British National Party has targeted the North East with its racist propaganda before and now it's back.

With its policy of repatriation the BNP is renowned for whipping up racial hatred in cities across the country and now the group has launched a campaign in Newcastle's West End with a string of sensational claims.

In a leaflet delivered to scores of homes it claims Brent Council in London is about to ship 16,000 refugees to Denton - even though Denton only has 10,500 residents and does not have the capacity to house an extra 16,000. The rumours have prompted a furious backlash from local authorities and a newspaper editor who have branded them racist and widely inaccurate. It's not the first time the BNP has incurred anger in the West End while trying to recruit new members.

Kevin Scott, a politics and history graduate of Newcastle University has been the BNP's North East regional organiser for the past nine years. He said: "The BNP has launched a campaign in that area with the support of local residents."

"We put out our leaflet on immigration and asylum and got a lot of people contacting us through our phone line. We received information that Newcastle and Brent Council were colluding to re-house substantial amounts of refugees in that particular area."

"The BNP's policy is well known. We stand for zero immigration and basically the asylum seekers that are here now would be repatriated. That's not any secret."

"If the London boroughs are talking about dispersing people around the country and principally Newcastle, I think it is legitimate for us to draw the conclusion that 16,000 refugees could be placed, theoretically, in Denton."

The Chronicle can reveal that Mr Scott, of South Shields, a self-confessed racist, stood as the BNP's candidate in Silksworth, Sunderland, in 1994 on the slogan "Rights for whites". In July 1987 he was convicted of assault and in 1993 of using threatening words and behaviour. For both, he received one year conditional discharges.

Far right group spread lies in race hate campaign

A far right group has sparked an outcry in the West End of Newcastle by claiming 16,000 refugees are about to be housed there. Investigative Reporter ANDREW MCKEGNEY examined the claims of the British National Party and found it's not the first time the racist group has sparked outrage with its campaign tactics.

CONTROVERSIAL:
Nick Griffin, leader of the British National Party

The latest leaflet, entitled Exposed: Labour's Secret Housing Policy, claims 16,000 refugees are to be sent to Denton as part of the Government's dispersal policy. Both Brent and Newcastle City Council strenuously deny the claims and have branded the leaflet inflammatory. The BNP says it got its information from a London newspaper, but the editor is now seeking legal advice after accusing the Far Right of grossly misrepresenting a straight forward story. The Chronicle tracked down the BNP's leader, Nick Griffin, to quiz him about the leaflet. Mr Griffin, currently campaigning in the West Bromwich West parliamentary by election eventually apologised for the wording of the leaflet but refused to withdraw the claims, saying instead he was doing the people of Newcastle a favour. "What is said in the leaflet is directly based on local press reports that appeared in that part of London. It may be that the newspaper got it wrong," he said.

"I would say that the figure came from them. When they talk about getting people off the housing waiting list the majority of people are newly arrived refugees and basically half the population of Brent is non white any way."

"We are talking 16,000, the vast majority of whom are most definitely non British, being shipped out of Brent. Newcastle is a major target area. I stand by what we say."

We asked Mr Griffin why it was that if 16,000 refugees came to Newcastle they would all go to Denton as claimed in the leaflet. He blustered: "You have me at a slight loss here. I am obviously not familiar with everything that goes into local leaflets."

As far as I know people in Denton have looked at it on the basis that it's a housing area, there are empty houses there that local people have not been allowed into and so it's an assumption that, if a very large number of these people are coming to Newcastle, at least some of them are going to end up in Denton."

Asked if he would apologise for the inaccuracy, he said: "I think the multi-racialists, including your newspaper, should apologise to the people of Newcastle and the people of Britain as a whole for trying to impose a multi-racial society on them against their democratically expressed wishes."

But eventually he conceded "I apologise for the fact that there is a slight error in the wording but most definitely I do not apologise for bringing it to the attention of the people that London boroughs want to put many thousands of non white, non British people in Newcastle."

It's not the first time the BNP has been attacked over the way it tries to win support. Two years ago in the wake of the Wesley Neale murder when feelings were still raw they tried to win support by putting up posters demanding the hanging of child murderers.

Wesley's mum, Liz, said: "The posters were kept away from me at the time but I was very upset. They are wrong if they are trying to incite racial hatred. There are houses that are empty so why should they stand empty to be set on fire when we can fill them with refugees. We have a right to live just as we have."

Newcastle and Brent Councils dismissed the BNP's leaflet as rubbish but added they were concerned at the motives behind it. A spokesman for Brent said: "These allegations are ludicrous. Brent has no plans to re-house any refugees in the Newcastle area."

"In the past three years Brent has only re-housed about 100 or so people and this has been largely in the South of England."

"We have asked councillors to approve something called an out of borough scheme that means we can approach boroughs elsewhere in the country and ask if they are prepared to house homeless families in their borough. That is very much at an early stage. We have not approached any local authority including Newcastle."

A Newcastle council insider said the authority was concerned that the BNP was trying to cause upset and annoyance to make it difficult for the authority to deal with asylum cases under review. Coun Ruth Robson, cabinet member for Housing and Regeneration, said: "The BNP's use of inflammatory statements concerning 'change the ethnic make-up' and 'riot-torn' and 'whites live in fear' are arguably racist in nature and serve no other purpose than to cause trouble."

"The city deplores these tactics and hopes that the residents of Newcastle will see the comments for what they are - political propaganda of the worst kind. In the first place, Denton only has 10,500 residents, so where would we house these hypothetical 16,000 refugees? Newcastle has a long tradition of welcoming people who are fleeing persecution in their own countries. Many communities are responding very positively to the new arrivals who ultimately have much they can contribute to life in the City."

The council is part of the North East Consortium, which signed a contract earlier this year with the Home Office to provide accommodation for 300 households across the city over a 12-month period. Half of this number will be for families; the rest will be for single or sharers.

Coun Robson said: "The city took the decision to be proactively involved in the dispersal system to ensure an element of control over the way the system was to be managed within the city."

"Apart from the contract arranged which involves the local authorities in the area, the Home Office is also contracting with private providers across the region. Only by being involved in the arrangements could we hope to influence the way in which the dispersal system was delivered across the city."

"We will be housing people in Denton as well as other parts of the city and the number of cases likely to arise will actually be quite low - around 15 households, equalling 35 people."

The Wembley Observer's editor Aaron Granby is seeking legal advice over the BNP's leaflet, which he says has grossly misrepresented a straight forward story.

He said: "The claims in the BNP leaflet are inaccurate and misleading as well as reprehensible. What the Wembley Observer actually reported was that Brent in common with other local councils was considering housing families on its waiting list in other parts of the country where housing is both cheaper and more available. "The article did not even mention refugees and we objected strongly to our name being used to help justify the abhorrent views of the BNP."

PROTEST: BNP supporters mingle with shoppers at a rally in Sunderland

"They have taken the germ of a policy idea and just expanded it to fit their own views. It is my understanding that what Brent

Nationalist minority struggles through in-fighting

PARTY membership of the BNP in the North East is a closely-guarded secret. But opponents of the racist nationalists estimate there are no more than 50 in the region. In the early 1990s the BNP was quite active, selling newspapers in Sunderland and South Tyneside.

But the party's national profile dwindled in the mid-1990s due to disagreements and in-fighting. This spring it became more active north of the Tyne by playing on the issue of asylum seekers. It leafleted homes in the West Denton, Wakergate and Arthur's Hill areas of Newcastle, and in Walsend and Whitley Bay.

More recently the fuel tax protests have enabled the party to seek a higher profile. Groups such as the Tyne & Wear Anti-Fascist Association (TWAAFA) which monitor the BNP say the party is trying to establish a more respectable image in the region but is struggling because of the background of some of its key members.

A spokesman for the TWAAFA said: "The BNP's leaflet is a crude attempt to stir up racial hatred."

"The public should remember that the BNP was the party of choice of the London nail bomber David Copeland, who said at his trial that he wanted to start a race war in order that the BNP might come to power."

West End councillor and resident Nigel Todd, who has written books about fascism said: "The leaflet is a cynical way of trying to pay on other people's fears and anxieties by simply telling them lies."

"The anti can only be to boost the membership and support of the BNP at the expense of other people's misery. It's the mark of a pretty rotten organisation."

The party's leader, Nick Griffin, admitted to the Chronicle he had a conviction for incitement to racial hatred, for which he received a suspended sentence.

are doing is nothing unusual. The policy is voluntary any way and while I have never been to Denton I can't imagine 16,000 people choosing to go and live there."

"The figure is wrong, the make-up of the piece is wrong, the whole leaflet is wrong. A Northumbria police spokesman said: "The BNP have the right to express their opinion however the leaflet produced by them is simply scaremongering. We have experienced a relatively small number of incidents involving refugees."

ON THE MOVE

South West BNP makes steady progress

"I'm impressed. The party's getting its act together and it's worth getting involved again." This was the reaction of a former organiser attending his first British National Party meeting for the best part of ten years, and it's typical of the new spirit in the West Country.

26 people attended the inaugural meeting of Plymouth BNP, which was ably chaired by Steve Cockett and addressed by national chairman Nick Griffin.

The audience comprised a complete cross-section of the population of Devon and Cornwall, with several ex-servicemen of various ages, as well as local people and several 'white flight' refugees.

A study of several computerised 'people finding' lists by the party's regional secretary has found no fewer than sixty former nationalist organisers, mainly from London and the West Midlands, now living in Cornwall alone. This is a tremendous pool of potential talent for the future, and several have already expressed an interest in getting back involved.

Mr Griffin gave a timely and well-received warning about just how little time is left to organise an effective political fight-back against the multiracial trends threatening to destroy Britain's traditional ethnic and cultural identity. The meeting went ahead in a very plush venue, despite a demonstration having been called by the IRA-supporting paedophile-lovers of the Socialist Workers Party. All present at the BNP meeting agreed that the party's regional and local organisers had been right in going ahead with the gathering while seeking to avoid confrontation with the far-left extremists.

In the event, the leftists' "mass mobilisation" attracted only about 35 oddballs to a demo on the other side of the city.

They got soaked to the skin and went home after about half-an-hour, having failed to achieve anything other than to get some good local publicity for the fact that the British National Party is now actively organising a patriotic alternative to Lib-Lab-Con policies of sell-out in one of the most traditionally patriotic parts of the country.

The meeting ended with a wide-ranging and very positive question-and-answer session, and an excellent collection of £169.

In the evening, Mr Griffin joined a party of key local and regional officials at a 'working dinner' at which various plans for the future development of the region were discussed and finalised. The entire event followed on from a visit to the South West last month by the BNP's Group Development Officer, Tony Leomber, who also held intensive planning meetings with the team of very keen and capable people who are pushing the party ahead throughout the South West.

■ The following day saw Nick Griffin in action at another meeting, this time at the other end of the large South West region in Cheltenham.

This smaller meeting of just 16 people nevertheless represented the best turn-out to date for the BNP's still new group in this traditionally difficult area for the party.

Mr Griffin discussed the lessons of the recent West Bromwich and Preston by-election campaigns, and explained the thinking behind plans for an experiment in recruitment by personal contact and invitation to small 'house evenings', rather than by the long-established method of leafleting and holding political meetings in formal venues. Once again, a question-and-answer session followed, covering subjects from the Labour party's drive to legalise sexual assaults on teenage boys to ways in which nationalists around Europe have been campaigning to provide moral support to our German counterparts as they face a fascist-style ban by the totalitarian leftists who dominate their parliament and legal system.

BLAIR GETS A ROASTING IN STOCKPORT!

The biggest Bonfire Night Protest crowd to enjoy the sight of nationalist activists burning a Tony Blair Guy was in Stockport. More than 500 members of the public roared their approval as the man most responsible for the great fuel tax rip-off went up in flames.

There's no doubt that Blair is now an extremely unpopular figure, even among traditional Labour voters. But the

Blair on the bonfire at our Mansfield bonfire night

Conservative 'opposition' are a bunch of squabbling no-hopers, and electors still have vivid memories of 18 years of Tory cuts, sleaze and incompetence, so Blair & Co. now look set to win the next general election.

The British National Party will be contesting seats whenever that election comes, concentrating its efforts on our best areas. We don't have the backing of foreign millionaires or union time-servers, so realistically we can't compete with the old parties in parliamentary elections until we've grown a lot more.

Our next big step forward will, however, come in Blair's second term, when the increasingly unpopular and arrogant Labour government starts losing council seats hand over fist. Council elections are where the BNP will start to win, so council elections are our top priority over the next two or three years.

Community politics is the key to our coming breakthrough, and local activists are the key factor in effective community politics. We only need a few more people in a few more areas to put together our winning teams. How about you?

THE EDITOR WISHES A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL OUR READERS!

MOVING FORWARD FUND!

As most if not all of our members and supporters are only too aware the British National Party unlike the tired old parties is not bankrolled to the tune of millions of pounds by big companies, neither is the party able to receive millions of pounds from foreign drug dealers or even wealthy Trade Unions. The fact is that the British National Party is only able to maintain the struggle to prevent Britain from becoming as The Times and Observer newspapers recently revealed, "a non-white majority within the next 60 years" because ordinary decent people like yourselves continue to donate the valuable financial resources which allows the party to initiate greater new events such as the very successful Red White & Blue and build a nation-wide machine capable of winning council seats in the coming year.

This is why the party needs possibly the most important commodity in politics, money, this is also why the British National Party is gearing itself to make even bigger strides in 2001 and therefore make electoral success all the more probable.

Remember, Christmas is a time for giving, and you can't find a better organisation to give to than the one that is going to save your nation's future!"

Please make cheques/POs payable to 'BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY' and address them to PO Box 51, Oundle PE8 6WQ.

What we stand for

In the British National Party

- A massive expansion of Freedom and Democracy to roll back the erosion of our traditional freedoms and truly reflect the wishes of the people; the adoption of popular referenda & hi-tech direct democracy.
- The establishment of a government that puts British interests first.
- An end to immigration and the scandal of bogus asylum-seekers flooding Britain. The use of the billions now wasted in foreign aid to fund generous 'Homeward Bound' schemes to encourage immigrants to return to their lands of origin.
- British withdrawal from the European Union: trade with Europe where it suits us but no political ties, and no monetary union.
